Attempt by Tehrik e Taliban Pakistan to set up bases in India

2711 Dr. K.P. Ramalingam

- (a) whether it is a fact that attempts have been made by Tehrik-e-Taliban Pakistan to set up bases in India;
- (b) if so, the details thereof;
- (c) whether it is also a fact that factions of Tehrik-e-Taliban Pakistan have time and again issued threats against India and have even owned allegiance to the newly formed AI-Qaeda in Indian sub-continent and ISIS; and
- (d) if so, the details thereof?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(SHRI HARIBHAI PARATHIBHAI CHAUDHARY)

(a) & (b) : There is no such attempts as per available inputs.

(c) & (d) : Tehrik-e-Taliban Pakistan - Jamaatul Ahrar (TTP-JA) had claimed responsibility for suicide attack on the Pakistani side of the Wagah Border on 2nd November, 2014.

This terror organization and its all other factions are considered to be hostile to Indian interests and believed to maintain links with Al-Qaeda/Al-Qaeda in the Indian Sub-Continent (AQIS). Some TTP commanders have also declared allegiance to the Amir of the Islamic State (IS), Abu Bakr al Baghdadi.
